

Sonca Pham

Pursuing
Early Childhood
Education Degree

2011 John K. Morgan Community Service Scholarship Recipient

“Sonca is an amazing young lady who will go far in life and is a most appropriate representative of someone who makes a conscious effort to participate in community service opportunities on a constant basis.”

(Dana Knight-Malone)

Sonca Pham's Community Service

- Participant with the Empty Stocking Fund since 2006
- Mentored and tutored an ESOL student at Salem High School in 2010 on academics and the American culture
- Thanksgiving 2008, volunteered with the Future Foundation of Atlanta to deliver Thanksgiving dinners to numerous homeless families in Atlanta)
- Participated in the Hosea Feed the Hungry(2008)
- Blood Drive(2008 to present)
- Participated in the Scholastic Book Fair(2008 to present)
- Volunteer at the Nancy Guinn Library for 2 years in the Youth Services Department(Summer Reading Program, Dr. Seuss's Birthday celebration, etc.)
- Hands On Atlanta(2010)-painted murals for an old church house
- Assisted the Gardening Club at Salem by planting flowers at the school
- Cherry Blossom Festival(Spring, 2006)
- International Club(2008)-Assisted in preparation of "International Night," which brought together the school and community and united people of all walks of life- raised money towards the "Invisible Children" Foundation.
- Volunteer in 2009 at the Nam Phuong Restaurant and presently a volunteer at the Pho#1 Restaurant
- 2010-assisted in cleaning a vintage boutique inside the Bank of American building.
- Assisted with the Rotary Club with the Father/Daughter Ball
- Member of SADD(Students Against Drunk Driving)